Dear NCUC members:

ICANN 55 will be held in Morocco 5-10 March 2016. NCUC members can apply to receive funding to attend the meeting. The travel dates can be ideally from 3 March to 10 March.

The budget for each meeting for travel support is maximum of $4,000. Covered travel expenses may include conference-related airfare, visas or related fees, lodging, and airport taxis. If the actual cost of these items is greater than $2,000 the member will be responsible for the difference. NCUC cannot provide a per diem or cover any other expenses. Selected travelers must make their own travel, accommodation, visa, and related arrangements and be reimbursed after the trip. NCUC cannot provide funds in advance of the meeting, or any administrative support.

Interested members should read carefully the terms and conditions of the policy available at <http://www.ncuc.org/participate/ncuc-travel-support/> and send a proposal as to why they should receive funding to attend this ICANN meeting. Please apply by replying to this email.

Best regards,

Dear Farzaneh,

thanks for sending us this travel support call. Please find below my application, where I tried to address all eligibility criteria specified on the NCUC website.

Name and affiliation: Tatiana Tropina, Max-Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law, participating in the NCUC in my individual capacity. I am living in Freiburg, Germany; but am a Russian passport holder.

I am a member of the NCUC from the last year and I did vote in the previous year's NCUC election.

I have been actively engaged in the work CCWP on Human Rights and Corporate Social Responsibility and CCWG-Accountability. I also joined the RDS PDP working group recently (not been active there yet, but the work just started).

My work at CCWG-accountability and CCWP on human rights is very likely to be advanced at the ICANN 55 for the following reasons.

At the CCWG-Accountability I have been engaged into the efforts to adopt a bylaw, which will make ICANN committed to respecting human rights within its mission. The proposed bylaw requires significant amount of work to be done in the Work Stream 2 (WS2) of the accountability process. The current outcome of the bylaw proposal is not known yet, because the ICANN's board is suggesting to move all the human-rights related issues to the WS2. Concerning the fact that CCWG plans to discuss the WS2 activities at the ICANN 55 meeting, the advance of my human rights-related work in Morocco doesn't depend on the outcome of the bylaw discussion. In any case, the WS2 will consider the development of the framework of interpretation of the commitment to respect human rights. Furthermore, I am a member of the subgroup 3 of the CCWP on Human rights, which is tasked to actively participate in the WS2 of CCWG and help in developing the framework of interpretation of the human rights commitment. This work will also get advanced in Morocco.

There are not so many people actively pushing for the human rights commitment at the CCWG-Accountability, and those of us who do have to engage themselves in every discussion because of the board's resistance and general controversy of this topic at the CCWG-accountability. So every person who is actively engaged can contribute a lot to the development of this work. I think this can also be considered as a good reason for me to apply for the travel funds. I also hope that my activity will be advanced more in general, not only in the context of my human rights related work. I am interested in many issues such as ICANN's interactions with LEA (where I see some dangerous trends), DNS abuse, and some others. I hope that the possibility to travel to the ICANN 55 meeting will allow me to get more engaged into the issues that are relevant to my area of expertise and where NCUC can benefit from my engagement.

I agree (and am willing) to participate in any NCUC, NCSG and GNSO meetings during ICANN 55 and write a post-trip blog post for the NCUC website. I have never received NCUC funding before.

Concerning my travel arrangements: I gladly accept the possibility for the reimbursement after the trip. My preliminary calculation of the costs: approx. 130 EUR airfare and approx. 600-something EUR hotel costs. I don't know the costs to and from the airport yet. I assume my final costs won't be higher than 1000 USD.

I saw that preferred dates of travel are 3-10 of March. Unfortunately, I have obligations to lecture on cybersecurity for judges in Budapest on 4th of March - I made this arrangement a long time ago and I can't reschedule this, so I will be able to arrive to Morocco on 5th of March only. Need to come back to Basel and fly from there.

So my travel dates are 5-10 of March. I hope it is still suitable.

Best regards

Tatiana

Dear Farzaneh,

I would like to attend the meeting. Also would like to avail the travel funding. Since, I am a new member, do you think it would be a hasty decision or not at the right time?

Would like to know your valuable inputs in this regard.

Best regards,

Rasheed Tamton.

Dear Rasheed,

Thanks for your email. You need to justify your request somehow. Tell us abit about your background, your activities within Internet governance, what you plan to achieve in Morrocco, how much funds you need. Then send that to me I forward it to EC. Don't worry about applying it won't have a negative effect on your future applications.

Best

Farzaneh

Dear Friends;

I am interested to recive travell support to attend the ICANN meeting in Marakesh. I need this travel support because I am from developing countries and my country unable to fund me to attend thei meeting, also to know the increased and grow in information technology in the world. To be part and engaged in the process as I am a member of NCUC. The last ICANN meeting which I am attended in Costa Rica in 2012.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Thanks
